

JUAN & ONLY

Welcome

Juan & Only is a full-service catering and hospitality company based in South Florida, built for occasions from intimate gatherings to large-scale productions, each held to the same standard.

We were founded on a simple premise: that whoever carries the responsibility for an event deserves a partner who carries it with them. Your name is on this occasion. So is ours, from the moment we accept it.

In practice, that looks like precision your guests will never see. Timelines confirmed before they're questioned, details resolved before they become problems, service that holds its shape under any pressure the day brings. It is why a number of Fortune 500 companies have trusted us across events of every scale, and why they return.

The menu that follows carries the same standard. We invite you into it.

On a mission

Hospitality, for us, begins with intention.

Our purpose has never changed: to glorify God through the way we serve - not through words, but through excellence quietly practiced: in a dish made with patience, a table set with care, and every guest made to feel truly valued.

That conviction shapes every decision: ingredients chosen for their integrity, technique perfected long before you arrive, service that meets your moment with the same reverence you bring to it. Intimate or grand, our standard holds. We aim not simply to meet the occasion, but to honor it, and to leave you with something worth remembering.

This is hospitality, elevated. The only standard for your occasion.
